Levert – People. Partnerships. Experience.

As one of the largest independent recruitment agencies in Canada, we at Levert offer personnel solutions for employers and employment opportunities for individuals in heavy industries such as mining, oil & gas, and the marine sector.

Since 1983, Levert continues to deliver on their promise of providing reliable, highly-skilled personnel solutions for our clients and secure, well-paying employment and career advancement for people. Our offices in Northern Ontario, Quebec, Newfoundland and Nova Scotia ensure that we are well represented in Eastern Canada, and allow us to benefit and bolster local economies by connecting the right people with industrial, clerical and executive employment opportunities in each region.

Levert is committed to the safety of its personnel and ensures that each candidate receives the proper training and follows the protocols necessary for your placement requirements. We understand the importance of safety in the workplace, and have established internal quality assurance processes to pre-screen and provide you with personnel that are safe, skilled and ready to work.

We offer well-paid employment options for people searching for stable working opportunities. Whether it is related to a change in career or advancement in your company, we offer a variety of free on-boarding services for them to get started.

Our mission at Levert is to be the connection solution – by helping companies find committed people who are ready to work and form a partnership of trust with you. We assume the risks, and your company is rewarded with valuable personnel who are motivated and loyal.

Levert is committed to safety.

One of the core tenets at Levert is ensuring the health, safety and well-being of our people. We believe that safety carries as much importance as providing our clients with motivated and experienced staff. With a safe work environment and proper standards for labour, comes increased productivity and success for the industry.

We focus on safety awareness and protocols associated with incident, injury and fatality prevention. We are committed to the education and execution of proper health and safety policies, procedures and promoting a culture of zero-harm for all of our employees in every position. By investing in safety, you develop safe workers.

The Levert approach to recruiting safe workers features:

- extensive vetting of our industry-ready, safety-minded personnel
- mandatory WHMIS, health and safety orientations, Confined Space training, etc.
- a dedicated Safety Officer who provides ongoing support where applicable

“Our commitment to the safety of our employees is to ensure that they return home safely to their families at the end of each and every shift.”

Richard Levert, President
